

Carl

33 / Sales / Dublin

Description

Carl works in sales and takes pride in taking part in his local community. He hasn't always had time to shop local but is hoping to do more now he has more time.

Carl would also like to cook more and would love to be able to check what is available at fresh market. He would like to know more about the business and how to connect with them on social media.

If a website is not easy to navigate Carl will not waste his time.
